

Growth and patterns

Arnd Scheel

University of Minnesota

scheel@umn.edu

Abstract

I will describe results that give quantitative predictions for patterns observed in pattern-forming systems posed in growing domains. Examples are the Swift–Hohenberg equation, Cahn–Hilliard and Ginzburg–Landau equations, or reaction-diffusion systems.