

Stability and topology for dynamical systems on networks

Jared Bronski

University of Illinois

Bronski@illinois.edu

Abstract

We consider the effect of network topology on the stability of dynamical systems on networks. For a class of dynamical systems we prove a dual stability results relating the dimension of the unstable manifold to the cycle space of the network.